We'll just file it with a motion for leave. There's no prejudice to your client since we offered you extra time. Kurt

Hi Jim
Thanks for the response. A less than three page supplement to what we have already filed.

Just to clarify, are you asking to do a supplemental memo that would be within the 3 or so pages that you didn't use for your opposition, or would you instead want to do a "replacement" memo that is within the 15 page limit, or something else? I'm not sure it makes much difference, but I am just anticipating the question from my client. (For example, they would probably be less likely to approve a request for a new 10-pages as opposed to a request to do a 3-page supplement).

Once I hear back from you, I will talk to my client and get back to you as soon as I can.

(I am leaving the office now, but you can call my cell or email me. My cell is 314-691-4199).

Hi Jim

We'd like to file a very brief supplemental memo in opposition. Would you agree to give us until Tuesday March 28 to do so and we'll add three days to your responses?

If so please advise and we'll send you a stipulated order.

Thanks and have a good weekend

Lynn

Lynn:

I have one correction for the Stipulated Order—our pleading is technically a “reply”, not a “sur-reply”.

With that correction, you have our consent to file with the Court.

Jim Martin

Good morning

Attached is a draft order regarding the extensions agreed to below. Please advise if this is acceptable and if so we'll file with the court.

Thanks

Kurt:

We consent to your request. (My apologies for the delay in getting back to you—my kids don't have school today, so I am enjoying a rare free Friday).

In turn, we would like to request an additional seven days for our reply. I think that would put your response deadline at March 22, and our reply deadline at April
5. Please let me know if that is agreeable.

Thanks,
Jim Martin

I'm out of the office all next week
at a legal conference (FDCC) in

Good morning –

We represent the plaintiffs in the above-referenced matter. May we have a 2 week extension to respond to your motion to dismiss? This would make our response due on March 22.

Please advise and we can draft a stipulated order for the court for your review.

Thanks!
Lynn
